

Woodland Hills Offers More Than Golf

Woodland Hills offers a golf course and membership second to none. We have a Members Lounge where tall stories about your round can be shared over food, drinks and lots of laughs.

Does your spouse and your children like the water? We have that covered too. We are pleased to offer a swimming pool for your enjoyment.

Woodland Hills Country Club Memberships

Woodland Hills Country Club was established in 1961 and has been a local favorite for golfers and non golfers alike. The course gets its popularity from the rolling hills, unique layout and exceptional course conditions. The course boasts the latest in green quality with the new wave in putting green ultra dwarf Bermudagrass, Tiff Eagle.

Course layout and conditions are not the only reason Woodland Hills has its popularity among local golfers. The membership base has well earned the reputation as the friendliest around. On any given day you will find groups of members, at differing times of day, gathering for a friendly round. The standard set by these groups is that anybody is welcome.

No matter what your golfing ability is, you will find a place at Woodland Hills Country Club.

Where Golf Meets Passion:

It is said that if there was ever a course that golf and passion meet, it is at Woodland Hills Country Club. The members of Woodland Hills not only have a passion for the game of golf, they have a passion of the course itself. The beautiful gardens and flower beds are a testament to the members commitment to the course. It is not uncommon to witness a member volunteering on any given day to work on golf course beautification project.
